Volunteering with Your Group in the BB4CK Kitchen

We would love to welcome your group in to make healthy lunches for hungry kids! Spending time in the BB4CK Kitchen is a great, fun, engaging and impactful opportunity – you will work hard, laugh lots and know that you are feeding hungry kids in our city.

There are two options for bringing a group in to volunteer with us. The first is one a Monday afternoon from 1:00pm – 3:00pm. A group of 10 volunteers will bake and prepare snacks to use throughout the week in kid's lunches. This opportunity has just been created, and openings are available as early as this month.

The second opportunity is on a Monday to Thursday morning from 7:30am – 12:00pm. Volunteers spend this time making sandwiches and preparing snacks for kid's lunches. For this morning opportunity, dates are booked about 18 months in advance right now.

With each of these opportunities, we invite you to help to provide the food your group will be using in lunches. We offer different levels of sponsorship opportunities that you can select in order to secure your date. You can choose the opportunity that works best for your group.

$2,000 will pay for a good portion of every lunch in a morning session and a good portion of every snack you make in an afternoon session. Your support will pay for about half of the food and supplies necessary for your day.

$1,000 will supply all the fruit, vegetables and buns that your group will use to make lunches for hungry kids during your morning in the BB4CK Kitchen, or for the supplies for about half of the snacks you make in an afternoon session.

$500 will provide all the fruit and vegetables that you will use to make healthy lunches for kids during your morning in the BB4CK Kitchen, or for some of the supplies you use to make snacks in your afternoon session.

Thank you for your interest in feeding hungry kids in our Calgary!
