Be A Hero For Hungry Kids

Hey Superhero Designer!

My name is Aiko. I'm a Superhero here at Brown Bagging for Calgary's Kids. I'm here to help make sure that ALL kids get enough good food to eat.

You might not realize this, but statistics show that there's probably a kid on your street who doesn't always have enough food to eat. Why? Well there are lots of reasons families run out of food. Maybe a parent has lost their job, or someone in the house has fallen sick and has to spend a lot of time in the hospital.

What matters though is that we're here to help get those kids food when they need it. That's where I step in. My job here at BB4CK is to help feed every kid. We can't do it alone though - we need your help. By unleashing your creativity on this design project, you're helping us to raise awareness of the problem - you're helping us reach more people who can help make sure all kids are fed.

So please don't forget to ask your Mom and Dad to leave a donation when you take a photo of your inspired design to send to us! Good luck you Superhero Designer!

(p.s. My picture's just here for inspiration - but remember you can design any superhero you want - and if you want to use your computer you can submit that design too!)

Hey parents! Thank you for helping grow our league of Heroes and entering your child's design into our 'Be a Hero for Hungry Kids' design contest.

Please consider donating on your child's behalf when submitting their entry. Your donation helps us continue to support Calgary's kids who need Heroes, like you.

You can submit one colouring or drawing per superhero (each week). Please include as many details or stories as you'd like. We would love to use these images in our stories here at BB4CK. If you would prefer we did not use them, please let us know when you make your submission.
